Filed 09/23/25

Page 12 of 41 PageID

dent: Andrew McClain #: 129 Case: 23-2447

IDENTIFICATION

The body arrives in two unsealed body bags. The body is identified by an identification band on the left ankle bearing the decedent's name. The body was positively identified visually by family.

CLOTHING AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

The body is clad in the following: A black shirt, blue jeans (located around ankles), multicolored underwear, and white-purple socks. Black sandals accompany the body in the body bag.

Personal effects consist of a blank ankle monitor (wrapped in foil) on the right ankle and hair accessories (bead, metal clip).

EVIDENCE OF MEDICAL THERAPY

Electrocardiogram leads (x4) are in place.

EXTERNAL EXAMINATION

The body is that of a normally developed and well-nourished, dark complexioned man appearing consistent with the listed age of 26 years. The length is 71 inches, and the weight is 180 pounds as received. The body is well preserved, cold, and has not been embalmed. Rigidity is fully developed in the jaw and extremities. Lividity is pink-purple, nonblanching, and in a posterior distribution.

The scalp is covered with braided black hair. Facial hair consists of black facial hair on the upper lip and chin. The ears are normally formed and without drainage. The left earlobe is pierced. The irides are brown, the corneas clear, and the bulbar and palpebral conjunctivae free of petechiae. The sclerae are white. The nose is intact, and the nares are clean and unobstructed. The lips are normally formed. The teeth are natural and in fair condition. The neck is symmetrical and the trachea is midline.

The chest is normally formed, symmetrical, and without palpable masses.

The abdomen is flat and soft. No masses are palpable.

The external genitalia are those of an uncircumcised man with both testes descended into the scrotum.

The back is straight and symmetrical. The anus is atraumatic.

The upper extremities are normally formed and symmetrical with no clubbing or edema. No needle punctures, track marks, or ventral wrist scars are noted. The fingernails are moderately dirty and extend up to 1/8" beyond the fingertips.

The lower extremities are normally formed and have no edema, amputations, or deformities. The toenails are trim and clean.

Ms. Bishop,

Great news on the case! We located and towed the suspect vehicle. Now the process of identifying the driver begins. Of course, the vehicle was not registered to who we believe was driving, so we need to be able to prove without a doubt who was actually operating the vehicle at the time of the crash. Not impossible and we're working on it. So far, we've received no cooperation from the registered vehicle owner, but that doesn't stop the investigation. I will keep you updated. Just wanted to let you know. Take care.

Respectfully,

Kelley Rhoda

Exhibit H – Key Communications Purpose Notes

October 10, 2023 - Plaintiff Email to Detective (11:02 AM):

Shows Plaintiff actively seeking updates and answers, demonstrating diligence in pursuing justice. Supports due-process claim because no meaningful response was provided, showing indifference to Plaintiff's right to know the status of the case.

October 22, 2023 - Detective Email (1:37 PM):

Acknowledges Plaintiff's voicemail and confirms receipt of an email from attorney Travail Croson. Shows that IMPD was aware Plaintiff had legal representation and promised to contact her attorney but failed to provide a meaningful update afterward, demonstrating negligence and failure to follow through.

November 14, 2023 - Detective Rhoda Email:

Documents the prosecutor's decision not to file charges despite IMPD knowing who owned the vehicle and being "pretty confident" about the suspects. This marks the closure point for the criminal case and supports Plaintiff's claim of denial of due process and deliberate indifference — IMPD had leads but chose not to act, leaving Plaintiff without recourse.

Ms. Bishop,

I tried to call this afternoon. It went to voicemail. Our numbers come up as "blocked." Since I could not get in contact with you, I am just emailing the info we would have discussed. Hopefully you have gotten a chance to discuss this with Mr. Crossen. I spoke with him this morning and informed his of the situation/outcome as well. Unfortunately, the prosecutor has chosen not to proceed with charges. There is also no insurance on the vehicle, so Mr. Crossen cannot proceed with a civil case. He can, it's just likely not beneficial. As far as the criminal case goes, we know who owns the vehicle and are pretty confident we know the two individuals who were in the vehicle at the time of the crash, but we cannot say with certainty who was driving. Of course, we cannot go to court with "pretty confident" or a suspicion, we have to be 100% sure and we cannot say that. We have tried to interview both individuals and one, the suspect, did actually speak with us. The other individual did not. As expected, the suspect admitted to nothing and claimed the vehicle was stolen. At this point, we cannot proceed with the case, but it will remain open to follow up on any new leads. Let me know what guestions you have and I will do my best to answer them.

Exhibit K – Sworn Statement of Nadine Bishop

#: 158

Document 24-1

- I, Nadine Bishop, declare as follows:
- 1. On August 14, 2023, I spoke by phone with Detective Kelly Rhoda regarding the death of my son, Andrew McClain.
- 2. Earlier that day, I had sent an email to Detective Rhoda stating: "Thank you so much. I also have information — it's a girl that called me and I know her and she told me her brother was there. The dude was bragging about what he had did to my son, that he was drunk. If you could call me, I will gladly appreciate it. My number is 317-932-4864."
- 3. During our phone call, I told Detective Rhoda my friend's full name, Katie Story, and offered her phone number. Detective Rhoda declined and said she did not need to speak with Katie or Katie's brother.
- 4. I also told Detective Rhoda what Katie had shared with me that when the car was seen that morning there were pieces of brain and teeth on it, and the windshield was demolished.
- 5. Detective Rhoda responded that there was "no way" Katie should have been able to tell me that information, because those details had not been released to the public.
- 6. Detective Rhoda assured me that she had enough evidence to lock someone up.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
